

Basalt Regional Library Homebound Delivery Program

Patron Eligibility

To be eligible to receive items for home delivery, the patrons must 1.) Be confined to their home due to prolonged illness, extended convalescences, or of advanced age and have no household member available to get them to the library. 2.) Have temporary or permanent physical or mental disabilities that prevent them from coming to the library.

To qualify for this free service, the homebound patron must live within the Basalt Regional Library District. Patron must have a library card. If a patron does not have a library card, a library card has to be issued prior to first delivery of material. If a patron's card exceeded $10, patron must pay fines before service begins.

Delivery Schedule

Deliveries will be made every 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month. Between the hours of 11am and 2pm. These deliveries will be made by a Basalt Library staff at the door. Our staff members should not be asked into the home. Staff has the right to refuse delivering items if they feel unsafe or uncomfortable upon time of arrival at patron's home.

Staff will drop off items that are chosen by the patron. Patrons may go online and place items on hold through the Basalt Library catalog at basaltlibrary.org, by calling the library at (970) 927-4311 with requests. Patrons may also request items by giving a list of no more than 5 items to Library staff at time of delivery. Staff will also pick up items that are due back at the library. If an item needs to be renewed, please call the at (970)927-4311 ext.0.

Fines and Fees

There will be no late fee or fines associated with this program. If an item is lost or damaged, fees will be incurred to patron.

Material Available

The following materials can be checked out through this program: books, large print books, audiobooks, music CD's, children's material, and movies.
